

WHY ASK QUESTIONS? WORKSHEET

NAME:

DATE:

Under each 'big question', see how many 'little questions' you can ask.
Look at Question 1 for an example.

Big Question: How did Richard III Govern?

- How long did he govern for?
- What set him apart from previous kings?
What was similar?
- Was he a popular king?
 - If so, where was he popular?
- Did he use the military a lot?
- Did he use marital connections to secure power?
- What battles occurred during his reign, and how many did he win?
- How does he compare with the kinds before and after him?
- How did he use his child(ren)?

Big Question: How does Nobuo Uematsu use motifs* in the orchestrated arrangement of To Zanarkand? (*motifs are repeated musical ideas)

Big Question: Does the language you use in computing matter significantly?

Big Question: Does Freud use Dream Theory successfully in psychological analysis?

Big Question: How can the level of acidity affect a chemical reaction?

Big Question: Is the Cabinet a Presidential System under Prime Minister Johnson?

Big Question: What's the biggest socio-economic factor affecting a child's educational performance?

Big Question: Does Shakespeare villainize the female characters in Othello?