

IGNITING FUTURES

Discover careers and opportunities in STEM*
at this fun and FREE event at RAF Brize Norton

18th April 2024

Millennium Amenities Centre, RAF Brize Norton

10.00-10.30 Arrival and welcome

10.30 Introduction to Igniting Futures

10.45 Build a wind turbine with STEMWorks
Work as a team to design and build a wind turbine, and discover more about engineering and energy production in our modern world.

12:00 Lunch

12.45 STEM in HE

Learn about the different pathways and options available to pursue STEM in higher education. Includes information about specific support for students from Armed Forces families.

13.15 STEM careers in the RAF

Opportunities and careers for the future.

14.00-14.30 Summary and departure

For students from Armed Forces families in Years 9 and 10. This is a free event with lunch and transport included!

Sign-up at school today!

Please contact your school to sign-up to this event!

Contact for Study Higher, Joanna Ridley: jridley@brookes.ac.uk